内容简介

Twitter Marketing: An Hour a Day is the ultimate step-by-step guide to developing a business's Twitter strategy, implementing the campaign, and then measuring and reporting on the results. The first part of the book quickly gets readers up to speed on today's Twitterverse, discussing Twitter's fascinating demographics and showing how the innovative platform is being used successfully by companies large and small. Readers are then guided through getting on the service, finding and attracting followers, using search and other tools, and mastering all of the unique Twitter conventions.
