内容简介

This is an inspiring series combines a wealth of breathtaking photographs and informative texts, helping you to explore the most fascinating countries and regions on the planet. Over 250 inspiring photographs capture the essence of each destination and each page spread is accompanied by informative texts which provide a stimulating background read. Over 1,000 carefully selected websites provide additional information for the most spectacular sights and a dedicated 20-page atlas section enables readers to locate cities, key landmarks, cultural monuments, national parks and much more. It is an ideal gift for any occasion!
