目录

I ' m nobody ! Who are you ?
The way I read a letter ' s this
To make a prairie it takes a clover
Water is taught by thirst
The soul selects her own society
A something in a summer ' s day
If what we could were what we would ——
For Death , —— or rather
If recollecting were forgetting
I send two Sunsets ——
I had been hungty all the years
Each that we lose rakes part of us
Good night ! which put the candle out ?
The mountain sat upon the plain
It was not death , for I stood up
I reason , earth is short
Love reckons by itself alone
The body grows outside , ——
A door just opened on a streer ——
The bee is not afraid of me
How happy is the little stone
Surgeons must be vety careful
The cricket sang
A word is dead
There is a word
The bustle in a house
A thought went up my mind today
There came a wind like a bugle
I died for beauty , but was scarce
I lived on dread; to those who know
I think that the root of the Wind is Water
It tossed and tossed , ——

My life closed twice before its close
Nature rarer uses yellow
Is bliss , then , such abyss
She sweeps with many-colored brooms
We learn in the retreating
No rock can torture me
So met its sun in thee
A clock stopped —— not the mantel ' s
Some things that fly there be , ——
Perception of an
A bird came down the walk
rye got an arrow here
Adventure most onto itself
I never hear the word "escape"
My country need not change her gown
There is another Loneliness
You ' ve seen balloons set , haven ' t you ?
It ' s like the light , ——
As imperceptibly as grid
Softened by Tune ' s consummate plush
The long sigh of the Frog
Before I got my eye put out
I heard a fly buzz when I died
What if I say I shall not wait ?
To tell the beauty would decrease
I started early , took my dog
Give little anguish
I years had been from home
Mine enemy is growing old , ——
Remembrance has a rear and front , ——
I measure every grief I meet
Pain has an element of blank
Apparently with no surprise
At half-past three a single bird
My rtver nms to thee
The last night that she lived
The son kept setting , setting still
The murmuring of bees hms ceased
If can stop one heart from breaking
