内容简介

A Moveable Feast presents a collection of travellers' tales set around the world, written by a well-seasoned spectrum of contributors, from celebrity chefs and best-selling travel writers to never-before-published travellers. The theme threading through this delectable multi-course concoction will be the inimitable ability of food to inspire our serendipities, satiate our senses, and enlighten our journeys -- in short, to transform the planet into an endless all-you-can-eat buffet for mind, soul, and stomach.

作者简介

Don George has been a pioneering travel writer and editor for more than two decades. Currently the Global Travel Editor for Lonely Planet Publications, he writes the award-winning Traveler at Large column for lonelyplanet.com and frequently appears as a travel expert in print, on radio and on TV. He has visited more than seventy countries, published more than six hundred articles in newspapers and magazines around the globe, and has won numerous awards for his writing and editing. In twenty-five years of wandering, he has lived in Paris, Athens and Tokyo, and now happily occupies his own House Somewhere in a small town outside San Francisco.
