作者简介

Don George is the Global Travel Editor for Lonely Planet Publications. His new book, Travel Writing, will be published this month. In 25 years of wandering, Don has visited more than 60 countries and has published more than 600 articles in newspapers and magazines around the globe. He has also edited four travel anthologies -- The Kindness of Strangers, A House Somewhere: Tales of Life Abroad, Salon.com's Wanderlust, and Travelers' Tales: Japan. Don often appears as a travel expert on radio and television, and speaks on travel writing and travel industry issues around the world. In addition to his editing and spokesperson duties for Lonely Planet, Don writes a weekly travel advice column for LonelyPlanet.com, entitled "What Would Don George Do?".
