作者简介

Gray snow piles and pools of mushy grit still hugged the New York City streets as author Regis St. Louis set off for the welcome heat (and beaches) of southern Brazil. One of a dozen authors currently on the road researching Lonely Planet's South America on a Shoestring guide, Regis returns to one of the world's most alluring destinations for a bit of revelry (starting with Carnaval), wildlife watching (destination: the Pantanal), and history lessons (Ouro Preto), while tracking down the best of both the new and the classic in Rio and southern Brazil.
