内容简介

This is the sequel to "Three Men in a Boat" in which George, Harris and the narrator escape suburbia once again and take to the Black Forest.

Their jaunt takes them away from the confines of domestic routine and, with a tandem and a bicycle, out to the Black Forest. The culture they encounter as they cycle round Germany comes as something of a surprise to them and they get into a few scrapes.

Jerome K. Jerome (1859-1927). Best known for his timeless comic novel Three Men in a Boat, Jerome was a popular figure whose long and varied career encompassed London's theatrical and literary scenes.
